

The Japan Times

US$1.10, ¥87

Tuesday, October 23, 2007

4th EDITION

BUSINESS TODAY

P.12

SERVICE

Study abroad cafe

Last Resort Corp. in conjunction with Travel Cafe Co. has opened a Last Resort Travel Cafe at JR Kamedo Station in Tokyo.

Last Resort Corp. offers various study and work abroad programs, and supports more than 10,000 students every year. In order to increase awareness and to promote its programs, the company has chosen a cafe as a "resort" to appeal to the younger generation.

Travel Cafe Co. operates travel-theme cafes under the concept of "A cafe that provides customers with a comfort zone along with information about people's ultimate dream, travel."

Having more than 600,000 visitors per month, the JR station building was chosen as its location to promote foreign study programs to those who haven't had the opportunity to be exposed to such information.

Study abroad-related screen images, brochures and magazines will be available at the cafe, as well as events and special services for Last Resort members.

For more details, visit Last Resort Travel Cafe's Web site at www.lastresortcafe.com.

EVENTS

IIT Japan Conference

The Indian Institutes of Technology (IIT) Alumni Association Japan will hold the first IIT Conference in Japan from Nov. 15 to 17 in Tokyo.

IIT is one of the most prestigious education institutions in the world and has many graduates working around the globe. The IIT alumni community holds conferences around the world. The conference aims to provide participants with opportunities for connecting with leaders from a wide spectrum of international perspectives, with its strong network of people and strategic partners worldwide.

The conference will include speeches, panel discussions, entertainment programs and a cocktail dinner.

For those who register by Oct. 25, admissions are ¥4,000 for seminars (¥2,000 for students), ¥8,000 for the Networking Dinner (Nov. 16) and ¥50,000 for the VIP Dinner (Nov. 15). After Oct. 26, admissions will be ¥20,000 (¥10,000 for students), ¥15,000 and ¥75,000, respectively.

For more information or registration, visit www.iitjapan.org.

Food and wine fair

The ANA InterContinental Tokyo hotel in Akasaka is hosting an international food and wine fair through Nov. 30.

The buffet-style menu at the Cascade Cafe on the second floor includes popular dishes from around the world such as tandoori chicken from India, Korean "chige" soup, Ukrainian borscht, paella from Spain, Greek moussaka with eggplant and ground meat, and the hotel's popular roast beef, broiled king crab and more.

The dinner buffet is served from 6 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. on weekdays, and 5 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. on weekends and holidays. The price is ¥6,000 for adults.

The complementary wine fair from 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the Manhattan Lounge on the 36th floor of the hotel offers a free drinks plan (¥3,300 per

2007年11月15、16日

IIT(インド工科大学)ジャパン コンファレンス

IIT JAPAN CONFERENCE

November 15, 16, 2007 in Tokyo

Great networking and educational opportunity. Register now for the highest profile conference on the India-Japan relationship.

www.iitjapan.org

P.2